

Inner Harmony, Inc. and Savor the Day, Inc. Soul Coaching Certification 2024

Refund and Cancellation policy

Online Registration, Graduation Requirements, Refund and Cancellation Policy

I, _____ (print name) agree to the following:

Registration and Payment: Class registration deposit is $1,000 USD. Balance of tuition must be paid in full before the first day of online class unless a written payment plan has been agreed upon between the Trainers (Meadow Linn and LuAnn Cibik) and myself.

Class Cancellation: Inner Harmony, Inc. and Savor the Day, Inc. have the right to cancel this course in the unlikely event that the minimum number of students for the class is not met by the discount registration cutoff date of March 15th. At that time, if the course is to be canceled, the deposit money and any other paid tuition money will be refunded back with no fees charged. Registered students will be notified.

Graduation Requirements: Graduation and certification occur when all coursework and program participation, including but not limited to full course attendance, home assignments, and projects have been completed to the Trainers satisfaction as well as when all payments have been received.

Student Cancellation Policy (In case of student cancellation or course withdrawal):

- If I cancel any time before the first set of course materials are mailed or emailed to me, a full refund will be issued, minus a $100 processing fee.
- If I choose to withdraw from the course, I understand that REFUND prior to the start of the online course will be prorated based on the amount of time and materials covered at the time of withdrawal.
Note: No REFUNDS are given after the first online lesson.
- If I must leave the course, I agree to return all hard copies of information and agree to delete all email and digital materials from my computer, as this is copyrighted material for graduates of the program. All hard copies of program materials received must be returned to the Trainers at my (the student's) expense.
- I understand I may attend the next virtual course to complete my certification, and there may be additional fees to cover the course expenses or price differences. I may also optionally choose to train privately with one of the Soul Coaching® Trainers in this course, at an additional tuition amount reflecting personal private training in order to complete my certification.
